

Andriani Abavi

She was born in Athens in 1978. She has studied at the department of Decoration Skills of the Institute of Professional Education in Athens. She has also graduated the 5th painting workshop of Mr. Golfinos at the School of Fine Arts of the Aristoteleio University of Thessaloniki. In her work, she disfigures and transforms the body and her relation to it as an artist. She detects the hue of consciousness and the endurance of the pressures exerted on the body, in the age of materialism, stress, triumph of external truth in dispense of internal experience.

www.artspot.gr/andriani

Theodor Charalampidis

He was born and works in Athens as a painter, decorator and hagiographer. He has attended evening classes at the School of Fine Arts of Athens. However he considers himself to be self taught, since he interrupted his studies to earn a living, in 1968. His painting isolates figures and objects, letting imagination embrace the vital space inside anyone who expresses his own life.

www.artspot.gr/teo22

Katerina Roumpeka

She has graduated the School of Fine Arts of Aristoteleio University of Thessaloniki since 2006. Art, for her, is the means of expression of her spiritual and mental experiences. In her work, she expresses the spiritual restlessness of figures, breaking the conventional models and constructing with harmony and line, shape and color contrast as her criteria.

www.artspot.gr/roumpeka

Irene Spiridakis

She is in modern painting and lives in Heraklion Crete. She has studied classical literature at the University of Crete with a master at the Greek Open University and attended the workshop of the lecturer of aesthetics education Azaria Madanian. She has participated in international and Greek group exhibitions, earning distinctions in competitions. Through her work she tries to exorcize the pretence of the visual experience.

www.artspot.gr/Eirini

Marilena Chroni

She was born in Athens in 1974 and graduated the department of Applied Arts at the Technical Professional High School of Sifitaneios School. She has attended acting, dancing and painting lessons and later on she studied graphic arts. In 2009 she decided to focus on painting and especially the mixed technique. Her inspiration derives from what she sees and feels and she uses different materials that inspire her.

www.artspot.gr/marilian74

Gabriel Grama

He was born in Piatra Neamt in Romania in 1976. He lives and works in Athens. He has graduated the School of Fine Arts of Iasi (Romania), while in 2008, his diploma was recognized as equal and respective to the ones given by the School of Fine Arts of Athens and Thessaloniki, in sculpture as major.

www.artspot.gr/grama

Foteini Kolokotroni

She has graduated the 5th painting workshop of Mr. Golfinos at the School of Fine Arts of the Aristoteleio University of Thessaloniki. Her work belongs to a series of digitally processed photographs which comments the virtual side of our reality. With a wide range of technological means at our disposal, still an incorrect assimilation of theirs, "virtuality" tends to replace reality.

www.artspot.gr/Kolokotroni

Nancy Mpalloutoglou

She was born in Athens in 1978. She has studied at the Technical Professional Institute of Decoration and has also graduated the department of painting of Mr Psychopedis at the School of Fine Arts of Athens since 2008. In her paintings, the human figure and its parts, in different postures and weird angles, dominate. Through this special look, she transforms the reality of photography into another reality, hers.

www.artspot.gr/nancy

George Uasileiadis

He was born in Korydallos in 1953. He works as a designer and he is an amateur painter and mainly wood sculptor. He has attended wood sculpture in Keratsini municipality for 2 years and painting in the art workshop of Korydallos for another 2 years. Art, for him, is being able to speak today and express tomorrow, being able to open paths of dialog with people and express yourself creatively.

www.artspot.gr/guasiliadis

Pantelis Vatikiotis

He has studied decoration and interior design. He works as a designer in a designing company. At the same time, he makes works of art made of wire, installations, paintings and digitally processed images. Art, for him, is a journey in a dreamland, with imagination as a leader and the expression of his feelings as a destination.

www.artspot.gr/badis